

UNIVERSALIST MINISTER.

Rev. Hiram N. Smith Expected in Middletown About September 1.

In all probability, says the Middletown Sun, Rev. Hiram N. Smith, Universalist minister, who has accepted the call to become pastor of the Universalist church in this city, will preach his first sermon as pastor on Sunday, September 5. Mr. Smith is at present spending his vacation at his wife's home in Maine. The church has been closed since the first of June, and a number of minor repairs have been made.

Senator Broke Law.

Fifteen prominent Branford residents were up before the town court last week for not complying with the dog licensing law. All settled for $1 and costs. Among them was Senator Minot E. Chaffee of New Haven, who helped to put the law under which he was fined through the legislature.

One pound of 16 candle power tungsten lamp filaments costs $900 and it takes 149,000 of these filaments to make a pound. In the case of the smallest incandescent lamp made, 84,000,000 filaments make a pound, at a cost of $900,000.

Common Council Meeting.

At the regular monthly meeting of the common council Monday evening there were three absentees, Aldermen Gellman, Smith and Sullivan. Reports of the various departments for the month were read. The police department showed 44 arrests. The superintendent of streets' report showed an expense for the month of $296.35.

A petition from John Lennon and 22 others for an electric light at the corner of Mansfield avenue and Corey street was referred to the lighting committee to investigate and report.

A petition from John Hoy to connect his residence on Godfrey street with a water main at the adjoining street, about 150 feet away, was referred to the water committee with power.

The matter of repainting the fire alarm boxes throughout the city was referred to the fire committee.

M. E. Lincoln appeared before the board in relation to carrying away of storm water from a portion of his property on Valley street, recent complaint having been made to the common council of the many places in the city where the water when coming down from building flows over the sidewalks in time of storms. He spoke at length on the matter and requested the privilege of connecting with the sewer.

At 10 a. m. the matter was taken up and the board decided to grant the application to the sewer committee for such privilege as lies in their power in this case.

For the month were read and approved and adjournment was taken until the next meeting, Monday night, Aug. 16, when the report of the mayor and finance committee on the barn matter will be taken up.

Fractured Collarbone.

Dwight A. Lyman met with a bad accident Monday morning. In descending the stairs from his office to the business office for mail his foot caught in the tread of one of the stairs, pitching him forward against a post, striking his left shoulder.

Dr. Parker, who treated Mr. Lyman, had a fractured collarbone. He was taken to his home on Oak street and the fracture reduced. He was able to get about the house later in the day. His injury is painful but not serious, and will prevent him from doing regular work for several days.

North Street Improvements.

The street department's men began work Monday laying trap rock on North street, commencing at Chesapeake corner. The big road roller was used during the afternoon, rolling down the screenings used as the top dressing.

No Excursions This Summer.

It looks as though the Consolidated railroad is to give Willimantic the go-by in the matter of running excursions to summer resorts this season. There hasn't been one yet run from here and Ticket Agent Moulton at the local station has not any notification of any for the present month.

Gun Club Plans Tournament.

The Willimantic gun club has selected Tuesday, August 17, for a trap tournament. H. L. Edgerton is the chairman of arrangements. Walter E. Gahan, who left this city a few weeks ago to enter the employ of N. T. Hurlbut at Winsted, is seriously ill in that city after suffering several hemorrhages of the lungs. John Gahan, Walter's brother, is in the city to see his son, said that he was sent to Saranac lake as soon as his condition permits. The attack was entirely unexpected and the news came as a shock to Mr. Gahan's relatives and friends.

CIGARETTE SMOKER

Set Fire to Bed Clothes and Damaged House.
There was an alarm for a fire at the house owned by Mrs. F. P. Botham, 31 Grove street, early Sunday morning. The department responded promptly. The damage was principally to the exterior at one side of the house, where the outer covering boards were burned. The fire is said to have been caused by a young man smoking a cigarette in a room on the upper floor, the cigarette igniting the bed clothes which when thrown out the window set fire to the building.

Exciting Game Expected.
There should be a great game on the Providence street grounds next Saturday, when Putnam and Jewett City, tied for first place in the league race for a month past, will get together with a certainty that one or the other must take a slide into second place. It is going to be the crucial game of the season and very probably a hummer from start to finish.
